HIGH SCHOOL FELLOWSHIP

The High School Christian Fellowship will meet tonight for an interesting discussion on "Play With a Purpose". Various aspects of recreational activities will be considered.

Y.P.C.F.

YPCF will come together tonight for an evening discussion on "What Should a Christian Think About the War". Masako Tabuchi will lead the discussion. Remember to come at 7:30 p.m.

HAPPINESS HOUR

The midweek "HAPPINESS HOUR" will meet at PSH 2 to study Acts, Chapter 24, "Paul Appeals Before the Governor Felix." The Rev. K. Harper Sakaue will be in charge. Please come at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

— Personals —

Fred Koyama, who has been a faithful and tireless worker in behalf of the young people, left to join the Country's service last Wednesday morning. In appreciation the YPCF gave him a farewell social on evening of May 15th at the church.

George Kiyota, Yoshiki Fujikawa, and Masashi Kenmotsu also were called to active service.

Hanae Kakehashi is the new supt. of Sunday School No. 1.

Johnny Ota of Chicago is here visiting friends.

Dr. and Mrs. D.L. Cook and Mrs. Doolittle returned to their home in Siloam Springs, Ark. We appreciated their help in our Sunday School and we are grateful for the literature they left for S.S. use.

Rev. Tatsuo Sakaguchi of Jerome Church relocated to Philadelphia, Pennsylvainia a few weeks ago.

Bean Takeda, active leader in our young people's group, made a short visit to Little Rock last week.

Tule Lakers from our group were: George Hanzawa, Kazuo Yoshida, Matsuo Iida, Sumie Kotake, and Masaoyoshi Omura.

We are glad to see Gerald Kakehashi back. He has been working at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Edward Koyama came to see his brother Fred off and after a brief stay, will return to St. Louis, Mo.

The Journal of Arkansas Education for May, 1944 carries an article by Ruth Shiraishi on "A Student Speaks on Home Rooms."

Frank Ota is back from Denver for a visit.

Congratulations!

To the 154 graduates of Class of 1944 of the Rohwer High School, our congratulations! May you trod the path where success and finer things of life are found.

Our congratulations and best wishes to Mary Asawa and Joe Oye, who were married at the First Baptist Church of McGehee, Arkansas on May 12th. The Rev. K. Harper Sakaue officiated. Mary was formerly of this center prior to her relocation to Cleveland. Mr. Oye was from the Jerome Center. The newlyweds returned to the Ohio city where they will make their home.

Congratulations and best wishes to Elsie Tsutsui, formerly of this center upon the happy occasion of her marriage to T-5 Henry Hayashi of Camp Shelby, Miss. They were married May 15 at the First Presbyterian Church of Greeley, Colorado.

With close friends and relatives present, the engagement of Kimiko Omura to Michimasa Kinoshita, who recently returned from Chagrin Falls, Ohio, was announced last Monday evening. The Rev. Y. Oyama was in charge.

News From Outside

Our former supt. of schools, Mr. John A. Trice pens from San Diego, Calif.: "I'm sure having a busy strenuous life and it is a vast change for me... The weather is beautiful here. Give my regards to all and especially the church."

Helen Toyama conveys gratitude for church news and sends greetings to all. Write her at 130 Gaylord St., Denver 6, Colorado.

Lillian Hayashi says that she is the first nisei student in the Columbia Bible College, Columbia, S. C. She plans to visit Michigan this summer.
